About The Maisies

Inspired by the beautiful harmonies of vintage girl groups The Maisies have created an eclectic mix of swing, blues, Latin and pop songs all performed in a unique style all their own. All three ladies are accomplished singers having performed in venues around the world to thousands of delighted audience members. Chantelle Wilson, the founder of The Maisies, is a former member of the popular jazz group "Swing Rosie" which received praise throughout North America for their inspired three part harmony sound. Chantelle is joined by Michele Kaye & Stacey Joy, two accomplished singers who complete this dynamic trio. The Ladies are backed by a fantastic 4 piece band that will keep the audience on its feet!
