Jeffries Favorite in the Betting, and Is Expected to Be a 1-to-2 Shot When They Climb Through the Ropes—Charles Miller Bets Tom Flanagan $3,000 Jeffries Will Win in 15 Rounds.

From a Staff Correspondent of The Toronto Daily Star. BY FRED J. HEWITT.

Reno, Nevada, July 4.—When James J. Jeffries and Jack Johnson climb through the ropes to-day it will be in the presence of the greatest crowd of fight enthusiasts the world ever saw.

Jeffries has declared that Sam Berger and not James J. Corbett will be his chief second and will advise him throughout the battle.

Johnson will have a routine of six behind him with Billy Delaney as chief. Tom Flanagan, Sig. Hart, Kid Cotton, Al Kaufman, and Stanley Ketchell will do the balance of the work.

Fitz and Sharkey Centers of Attraction. Bob Fitzsimmons who arrived yesterday from Vancouver was the center of attraction wherever he went and vied only with the redoubtable Tom Sharkey of New York in popularity.

There has been a lot of betting here on the number of rounds. Pool rooms are laying even money that Jeffries will win in twenty rounds.

Charlie Miller of Toronto bet $3,000 at even money that Jeffries would win inside sixteen rounds.

Jack Skelly and Jack Grace, two famous old-time fighters, are among the visitors, and both are being congratulated on their wonderful appearance.

EXHIBITION GAME ENDED IN ROW

Nationals Get a Warm Welcome From the Shamrocks—A Free Fight.

CAPS WANT WESTERN MEN Disgusted With the Officials They Have Had in Their N.L.U. Matches So Far This Season.

Montreal, July 4.—The victorious Nationals and Shamrocks played an exhibition game at Maisonneuve on Saturday, which broke up in a row with the score a tie, 2-11. Nationals presented a weak line-up.

The Nationals received a great ovation, taking every move being greeted with applause. "Newy" responded by scoring both goals for his side, and most of his teammates played listlessly, not showing the dash which has characterized the National attack in former matches.

Special to The Star. Ottawa, July 4.—The injury sustained by Eric Hesterworth and Johnny Powers in Friday's game against Montreal was not likely to keep them out of the game for long.
