TORONTO TEAM MADE ITS FINAL APPEARANCE IN GEORGIA YESTERDAY--W. A. HEWITT

BACHMAN LET UP AND ATLANTA HIT OUT A VICTORY

Regulars and Yanigans Both Beaten Yesterday—Atlanta Players Work a Musty Trick on Tim Jordan—Game at Birmingham To-day.

Special to The Star From a Staff Correspondent.
By W. A. HEWITT.

Birmingham, Ala., April 7.—Manager Kelley's team made their final appearance of the season in Georgia yesterday, when they went down before the Southern League team at Atlanta by 5 to 3. To-day they are back in Alabama, where they will play Birmingham two games and then make a long jump north to Louisville, where they will play the American Association team of that city on Sunday, and expect to take a fall out of Doc Newton and Myron Grimshaw, two ex-Torontonians.

Washington American Leaguers watched Toronto play Atlanta yesterday, and were of the opinion that when the Leaf pitchers let themselves out to the limit they would be very hard to beat in Eastern League company.

They Kidded Tim Jordan.

They were all tickled to see Tim Jordan "come back." Tim is very popular in the majors, and all players were glad to note that the strength has returned to his disabled knee. Tim showed some speed when he made first base on a short passed ball by the catcher on the third strike. He hit one ball a few feet foul in right field that would have been a clean home-run had it stayed in fair territory. It was one of the longest drives ever made on the grounds, and after O'Hara had been run down between third and home in the seventh, Toronto changed coaches, and the ball was slipped surreptitously to the shortstop, who worked the ancient "hide the ball" trick on Jordan to the great delight of the spectators, who kidded Tim unmercifully. Jordan also heard from Germany Schaefer, Kid Elberfeld, and Kid Conroy on the subject at the hotel after the game.

Slow Ball Wouldn't Work.

Ed. Killian pitched the first five innings and had an excellent crossfire, with a fine turn of speed. He was not so successful with his slow ball, though. He couldn't get the "stuff" on it, and Atlanta got all their hits on the slow ones. This slow ball is one of Killian's best assets, and the American Leaguers said that when he gets it working properly Eastern League batters will break their backs trying to hit it.

They Landed on Bachman.

Lester Bachman went in in the sixth, and "burned" the ball over. He used so much speed Kelley told him to let up, and as a result Atlanta got to him in the seventh. He cut loose again in the eighth and kept them off the bags. Bachman's delivery is all overhand. He never varies his style, and throws his curve and his fast one with the same motion, which is mighty deceptive to a batter. He is a big fellow and the soreness is gradually being worked out of his arm. In two weeks' time he will be fit and ready to go the distance.

O'Hara Has a Bad Wing.

O'Hara's arm is in bad shape, and Atlanta took advantage of it, advancing a base nearly every time a safe hit was made to centre, knowing that O'Hara would not take a chance and throw the ball.

M. Shaw had a real good day. He walked twice, got two smashing hits, and should have had a triple to right on his other appearance at the bat. The ball was hit a mile a minute, but Sykes, the first-baseman, stuck out his glove and made a sensational catch. Shaw also threw out a runner at second who over-ran the bag on a single to his territory. There's nothing wrong with Shaw's arm.

Jimmy Mullen made a great catch of a low fly back of second in the fifth inning, saving a couple of runs. There were two on and two out at the time, and the play got Toronto out of a very ticklish situation. Vaughn and Bradley fielded well, Bobby's snappy work making him a favorite with the crowd. Vaughn also had a couple of nice hits to left.

Phelps was lacking somewhat in ginger, but fooled the Crackers when they tried to pull off a New York Giant play, viz., scoring from second on a squeeze play. Phelps made a bluff to throw to first after fielding the ball and when the runner had turned third caught him on his way home.

Joe Kelley had a near-hit and fielded several balls slowly.

There was an argument in the eighth over a long drive to left centre by Mullen. Moran and Zimmerman both ran for the ball, the former catching it on the jump with his hands outstretched over his head. Simultaneously with the catch Moran handled or hand-batted the ball towards Zimmerman, who missed. Mullen tore around the bases to third, and claimed a triple, but the umpire waved him out, ruling, quite properly, that Moran had held the ball momentarily.

JERSEY BELLE WINS BIG NEWMARKET RACE

Takes Selling Plate Worth One Hundred and Three Sovereigns, at Newmarket.

Special to The Star.

London, April 8.—H. P. Whitney's Jersey Belle, ridden by "Skeets" Martin, scored the first American win of the season at Newmarket, to-day, capturing the selling plate of 103 sovereigns, for two-year-olds, distance, last four furlongs of the Rous course. There were nine starters.

TOURNAMENT OFFICIALS.

The officials for the amateur Canadian boxing championships to be held in Mutual street rink during Easter week have been appointed by the boxing committee. They are as follows:

Referee, Joseph Wright; judges, D. F. Maguire, J. P. Fitzgerald; timekeepers, G. H. Briggs, Major R. K. Barker; clerks of scales, Sergt. Wm. Grant, Walter Harris; announcer, John R. Bennett; medical examiner, Dr. James W. Barton.

When J. P. Fitzgerald appeared as secretary of the New National Sporting Club his amateur status was sharply questioned by the A. A. U. of C., but evidently the powers that be relented when they figured that Fitzgerald was as good an amateur as a dozen other men who officiate at A. A. U. of C. meets, or hold A. A. U. of C. offices.

NEWS OF ATHLETES

The gentleman who holds membership card No. 106 in the National Sporting Association is requested to send his card in to the secretary.

Once and for all let it be known that the Irish-Canadian A.C. and the Irish Athletic Club of Simcoe street are two separate and distinct organizations. The Irish-Canadians are not after a liquor license. The Irish club's application for a club license was bumped by the License Commissioners.

The West End Y.M.C.A. Boys' Harrier Club held their annual meeting and elected the following officers for the coming season:
Hon. Pres.—W. Stafford.
Pres.—F. Miles.
Vice-Pres.—N. Gerry.
Secy.-Treas.—A. Saunders.
Captain—P. Croft.
Whippers-ins—Junior, H. Shelford; senior, T. Peers.
Trainers—J. Dennis, R. Ward.

The club decided to run their weekly handicaps, and will have a medley relay race on Good Friday morning in connection with the senior race.

The Hamilton Police A.A.A. talk of sending champion Norman Bramer to compete for the all-round championship.

The first of the weekly handicaps was run off last night, and it uncovered a dark horse in the winner, G. Riddon, who had the limit, and although the first time out, covered the distance in 8 minutes and 21 seconds. A. Harris finished the next in order, with E. Blackwell third, both starting from scratch.

YANNIGANS BEATEN.

Keeler's Collection Lose a 2—1 Game to Danville Nine.

Special to The Star.

Danville, Va., April 7.—With the Canuck twirler, Pitcher McIntyre, of Fullerton, Ont., in the box, Toronto Yannigans lost a hard contest to Danville yesterday by 2—1. McIntyre pitched an excellent game, allowing but five scratch hits and fanning five. The game gave the Toronto players a chance to loosen up, as they were considerably stiffened up from their four days' rest.

Danville scored the first run in the third. With two out Irwin singled, went to second when McIntyre hit Smith. Russell hit one to the outfield, which should have been an easy out, and Irwin scored. They got their other run in the seventh when Delahanty dropped an easy fly in left, Lockhart stole and scored on Fry's hit.

Keeler's boys got their lone tally in the seventh, when Mueller walked, Kocher passed one to left field, and McIntyre's long fly scored Mueller. Things did look rosy in the eighth, when Keeler slammed out a double, and went to third on Delahanty's out. Slattery hit safely to left field, but Umpire Lea called the ball foul, robbing the Leafs of a run.

He also called a runner safe at first base, claiming Slattery did not have his foot on the bag, although the runner was going to the bench, knowing he was out.

RUBENSTEIN IS AFTER FALCONER AND MACKAY

Montreal Man Does Not Propose to Let Toronto Men Run the C.W.A.

"Any old time that you Toronto people find your Uncle Louis Rubenstein laying down, wire me," remarked a Montreal man in close touch with Mr. Rubenstein and the cycling game in the East to-day. "Louis has been president of the Canadian Wheelman's Association so long that he feels that the office is his by hereditary right, and he doesn't propose to give it up because you Toronto cycling men think it is time for a change. Not only will Rubenstein fight for his own official head, but he intends carrying the war into Africa and make an attempt to oust G. L. MacKay, chairman of the Dominion Racing Board, and Robert Falconer, chairman of the Membership Committee. Rubenstein says, and the Montreal members will back him up, that MacKay and Falconer have been running the whole C.W.A. to suit themselves and their ends for the last two years. He says that meets have been run for private gain, and that match races have been framed up regardless of C.W.A. rules and regulations, and without consulting anyone but their own sweet selves. He says that the C.W.A. is too big an organization to be made subservient to the whims and ideas of any two men. He wants the power of men in office like these curbed."

This looks as if Rubenstein's protest made last fall is going to come to a head a week Saturday, when the annual meeting is to be held. Last fall the president made an attempt to curb what he called "the Toronto autocrats of the C.W.A.," but bumped his head into a brick wall. Now he has had a chance to plan a campaign, and it looks as if the men who controlled the C.W.A. last year would be hard put to it to hold the reins of government.

The Toronto contingent attempted to run W. G. McClelland of Toronto for the presidency in opposition to Rubenstein, but McClelland was forced to decline because of a business extension which will keep him out of Toronto much this summer. Ed. Seagram of Waterloo, who was also offered the nomination, found himself too busy. Who will oppose Rubenstein?

CENTRAL BOYS WON.

In their return game with the Hamilton juniors last night the Central Boys' Club basketball team won by 38 to 22. As they were 14 behind in their game at Hamilton, Central wins the round by two points. The half-time score was 23 to 14.

JIM CORKERY CAN RUN AT BOSTON MARATHON

A. A. U. of C. Raises Irish-Canadian Runner's Suspension.

At a meeting of the Registration Committee of the Amateur Athletic Union last night E. Payne and G. Halligan, local boxers, were suspended for violation of the rules, and Gus Ninham of St. Thomas was suspended until June 1 for competing in an unsanctioned meet at Aylmer.

James Corkery, of the Irish-Canadians, was granted a card, which had been withheld because of his entry in two races at different places on the same day last winter.

A. Mawdsley of London was considered not eligible as an amateur.

Because of the incomplete and unsatisfactory report of their indoor sanctioned games last November no further sanctions will be granted to the 48th Highlanders A.A.

Sanction for the Hamilton Spectator marathon refused until inaccuracies in the advertising matter issued in connection with it are corrected.

TURF TOPICS.

The well-known local rider, Jockey Dalton McCarthy, who rode on the coast this winter, and has been holidaying at his home here for the past month, will leave to-night for Jamestown, Va., where he will ride for J. Hogan.

The Colorado Senate bill establishing a racing commission, and providing for race meetings at fairs, between April and October, with pari-mutuel betting, passed the House on third reading yesterday, and now goes to the Governor. Another bill dealing with racing is pending in the House under second reading. This bill has been amended so as to take in athletic exhibitions and legalized ten-round boxing contests.

The winter meeting of the Florida Live Stock and Agricultural State Fair Association, which opened at Moncrief Park, Jacksonville, Fla., November 24, 1910, and came to a close April 1, embraced 111 racing days, during which $320,500 was distributed in stakes and purses, representing a daily average distribution of $2,878. J. W. Schorr and F. J. Pons figured in an exceedingly close contest for first place in the money-winning owners' list, the honor going to Mr. Schorr by the scant margin of $50. The winnings of the Schorr horses foot up $14,100, as against $14,050 to the credit of the Pons stable. S. A. Clopton is third with $11,440, and others over the $10,000 mark include R. D. Williams and the Beverwyck stable. G. P. Chinn fell just short of the $10,000 class, 106 owners were winners of $500 and over.

AMENDMENT WILL CAUSE TROUBLE

Queen City Yacht Club Amendment Rates Jewish Citizens as Undesirable.

LIKELY BE SNOWED UNDER

Proposal to Raise Annual Fees to $15—Meeting on Tuesday.

The following amendment offered to the Queen City Yacht Club general meeting to be held at the club house on Tuesday will raise a storm of protest, if not in the club, at least around town:

"That in future all Jews, negroes, and people of other undesirable nationalities be refused membership in this club."

To label the Jewish citizens of Toronto as undesirables, even in a proposed amendment, is a gratuitous insult to a class of citizens that Toronto has reason to be proud of and to respect. The amendment, as far as it refers to Jews, will doubtless meet with the summary fate it deserves. It comes with ill grace from such a progressive club as the Q.C.Y.C.

Other amendments propose to raise the annual fee from $10 to $15, settle the life membership at $75, and the non-resident fee at $5.
