National Yacht Club Dance.

The National Yacht and Skiff Club held at their club rooms last evening a most successful concert and dance.

Mrs. Grace Farrows, dressed in white satin with an overdress of real Venetian lace, gave a vocal number that was so appreciated by the audience that she had to sing again later in the evening, she being assisted by Mrs. Robert Muir. Both ladies were presented with a large bouquet of flowers. Master Phillips gave a number of selections on the piano. The Ayrshire Quartet showed by their singing that they were far superior to most of the local quartets. Mr. T. Barber Tenor, Mr. John and Alfred Shoesmith gave varied selections on the mandolin. Mr. D. A. Phillips and Mr. J. W. Lee kept the large audience in the best of humor with their comic songs and impersonations. After the concert, supper was served in the supper parlors, and then dancing was indulged in until the wee hours of the morning.

Among the guests present were: Commodore Armstrong, of the Queen City Yacht Club; Vice-Commodore Lindsay, of the Queen City Yacht Club; Commodore H. P. Lawson, Vice-Commodore Murch, Rear-Commodore Geo Dingwall, of the National Yacht Club, Mrs. Leach, Mrs Dingwall, Mrs. Bennyworth, Miss Elenor, Miss E. Wyatt, Mrs. H. Lynch—Nolan.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Paul's Church, Alliston, Ont., when Miss Annie Josephine, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dane Nolan, was united in marriage to Mr. Terence Lynch of Alliston. Rev. Father Gibney officiating. The bride who was given away by her father, looked pretty in a tailored suit of mustard-colored broadcloth, with large satin hat to match, trimmed with black osprey, carrying a shower of bridal roses and lilies of the valley. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Gertrude Marie, who wore a taupe suit of satin cloth with white hat, and carried pink carnations. Mr. L. D. Nolan, brother of the bride, assisted the groom. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the bride's father, where a wedding breakfast was served, after which the young couple left on the four-thirty-one train for Toronto and other points. On their return they will take up their residence on the Nolan homestead.

Mrs. Jose's Reception.

Mrs. Jack Jose (Miss Madge Bonham) held her post-nuptial reception at her pretty home in Kingscourt Apartments, Parkdale. The bride looked charming in pale mauve charmeuse over satin with gold crystal trimmings and Viennese lace. Mrs. John Stewart, her sister, also received in a becoming gown of old rose over cream satin.

The tea table was arranged with a cluny lace centre on which stood a silver basket filled with daffodils and yellow-shaded candles. Mrs. Edward Adamson and Mrs. Leonard Pallett poured tea and coffee, while Miss Alice Bonham, wearing her bridesmaid's frock of pale blue silk mull, along with Mrs. R. L. Jose, Miss Betty Scott, and Miss Myrtle Adamson, assisted in the tea room. Mrs. Wm. Scripture assisted in the drawing room, which was decorated with crimson tulips.

Engagements Announced.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Edna Stewart, to Dr. Burgess, purporting to have been made by Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Stewart, which appeared in yesterday's issue of The Star, was put in without the authority of either Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Stewart.

Valentine Tea.

The many friends of Mrs. Crews and Miss Crews were entertained at two pretty Valentine teas at their home in Spencer avenue, Parkdale. The drawing rooms were decorated with daffodils, and the tea room looked very picturesque with festoons of cupids, hearts, and arrows, and the valentine colors throughout. The ladies assisting were Mrs. Walter Ecclestone, Mrs. W. Harland Smith, Mrs. Elliott, and Mrs. Johns. The tea table was artistically arranged with four small cut glass baskets of marguerites, and a large centre basket of scarlet carnations and freezias, surrounded by streamers of hearts. Mrs. George Dean and Mrs. Malcolm Sparrow poured the tea and coffee on Tuesday, and Mrs. Alden Clark and Mrs. T. W. Miller on Wednesday. The young ladies in the tea room wore cute little heart-shaped aprons, and were most attentive. They were: The Misses Alice Verity, Flossie Johnston, Grace Henderson, Edna Baggs, Hilda Rutherford, Irene Holtby, Annie Keeler, Blanche Dunham, and Mrs. Freeman Treleaven, of Hamilton.

During the afternoon Mrs. Grace Carter Merry, assisted by Mrs. Newton Magwood at the piano, rendered two delightful solos, which were greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Beaton's Reception.

Mrs. Colin N. Beaton (Miss Willo Brown) received for the first time since her marriage at her mother's home, 1311 King street west, Parkdale. The young bride made a charming hostess, in a pretty gown of pale pink ninon over satin, with trimmings of white swansdown and tiny rosebuds, with a corsage bouquet of sweet peas and lilies of the valley. The rooms were prettily decorated—the drawing-room in pink and green, with soft-shaded lights, the tea room daintily in yellow, the polished mahogany table being tastefully decorated with tulle and smilax, a cut glass basket on a reflector, holding daffodils, with bows of satin ribbon and yellow-shaded candles. Mrs. Harry Brown, the bride's mother, who also received, wore a pretty gown of black lace over taffeta, with corsage bouquet of violets. Mrs. K. Sewell poured tea. The assistants were: Miss Winnifred Sheppard and Mrs. F. Cassels.

Mrs. Allan's Bridge.

Mrs. Frank S. Allan was the hostess of a bridge yesterday afternoon at her home in De Lisle street, in honor of Miss Caldwell of Boston. Four tables were played, and the prizes, silver photograph frames, were won by Miss Caldwell, Mrs. Gordon Gooderham, Mrs. John Wright, and Mrs. Norman Gooderham. Tea was served on a table decorated with red hearts, Richmond roses, and red shaded candles, and in charge of Mrs. A. A. Allan and Mrs. Caldwell. Others present were: Mrs. E. Palmer, Mrs. Myles, Miss Evelyn Taylor, Miss Lilian Allan, Mrs. Gibbons, Mrs. Oliver Adams, Mrs. Kleiser.

Mrs. Oxley's Reception.

Mrs. Erskine Oxley (Miss Eakins) received for the first time since her marriage, on Friday afternoon at Nanton Apartments. The bride was wearing a very becoming gown of rose crepe de chene with Irish lace and received in the drawing room, which was profusely decorated with daffodils. She was assisted in the drawing room by Miss Elsie Dixon Craig, who wore a handsome gown of grey velvet, with lace collar. Mrs. Frank Spry presided in the tea room, assisted by Miss Haywood and Miss Aylesworth. The polished table was centred with lace, with a large silver bowl of red tulips.

Fairweathers FURS

As An Investment

UNLIKE almost any other kind of ladies' apparel, GOOD furs may be bought for their intrinsic value in future service as well in February as at the beginning of the season.

And far from being the only saving, our present discounts are enhanced by the ultimate saving of 10 to 50 per cent. on next winter's furs.

An Inimitable Quality

There is something in Campana's Italian Balm that makes it the most effective, reliable, and soothing of all complexion lotions offered to heal the skin and preserve it healthy against the vigorous Canadian out-of-doors. Maybe the "something" is only a happy combination of several simple ingredients, but the "something" is there and it is not found in any other cosmetic or complexion lotion. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents the bottle. E. G. West and Company, Toronto, Canadian distributors.

GREY HAIR

Dr. Tremain's Natural Hair Restorative will positively restore grey hair to its natural color, and keep it so. It is not a hair dye, and will not injure the scalp. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Price, one dollar. On sale at Bond Bros.' Drug Store, 453 Yonge street, or sent postpaid by addressing The Tremain Supply Co., Box 487, Toronto. 246tf
