MR. LANDIS SEES THE LEAFS TAME ORIOLES

Howleyites Win a Double-Header From the Crippled Champions

SHUTOUT FOR GLASER

Jimmy Walsh and the Skeeters Will Swarm at Island To-day

By CHARLIE GOOD

No fault could be found with the pitching that the Leafs got in the double-header with the champions yesterday. Stewart, whose second victory it was in as many starts, was effective in all but one inning in the first game, which he won six to five. The last three runs were virtually a gift on the part of Umpire Gaston, who, with two chances in the ninth to award the Leafs double plays refused to give the locals the benefit of the doubt, and made Stewart's task more difficult. With a pair of runners on the bases, thanks to the generosity of the arbiter, Cobb crashed into left and the ball soared and soared in the wind, finally coming to rest deep down in the left field bleachers for the longest hit of this or any other season into that particular section.

The whack only made the score seem close as the Birds, after the Leafs wiped out the early two-run deficit, were completely baffled by the southpaw slants of the Birmingham recruit who was almost as strong on the offense as he was on the defense. He had two hits and was on the batting end of a well-executed squeeze play.

Glaser Shows 'Em

Glaser, if anything, improved upon Stewart's exhibition in the second game which saw the Leafs winners five to nothing. It was a seven-inning affair, and the right-hander after being touched up for three hits in the first four sessions did not allow anything that resembled a safe blow in the final frames. Like Stewart his aim was almost perfect, and the work of the pair was in marked contrast to that of the opposing boxmen with the possible exception of Henderson, who was a "Walter Johnson" in all but one of the six innings in which he pitched, in the second game. Beating the Birds twice in one day and thrice in succession is a notable feat, one that no Toronto team has accomplished within recent years, and Doyle, Stewart and Glaser deserve every credit.

Looks Blue For Birds

Unless the champions get better box work in future they will hardly return home in first place. The pitching that his team got in the local series was not of pennant winning variety. Henderson in the final flurry was the only flinger to go the entire route, and he was only allowed to remain on the firing line because it was no use making a change.

Every pitcher on the Baltimore staff did a chore at one time or other in the four games, and Ogden, Thomas, Frank, Henderson and Tomlin did double duty. It was probably a lucky thing for the Leafs that Groves and the Parnham were not with the club. The big left-hander, who is usually "polson" for the Howleyites, is nursing a sore wrist, while the elongated Rube is on a tour, apparently, as Manager Dunn during the stay of the Birds in Toronto received a number of wires from him all from different points.

Dunn is disgusted with the antics of the eccentric one, and says that he doesn't care whether Parnham, who led the league in wins last season, returns to the fold or not.

The series was a costly one for the Orioles, as in addition to dropping three games they lost the services of Jacobson, brilliant centre fielder, whose injured shoulder is likely to keep him out of the game for some time.

Little Man and Big Bat

"Cotton" Boll was all wool and a yard wide in the second game, and anything but shoddy in the initial pastime. His double in the fifth, which was the Leafs' first hit off Henderson, started all of the trouble for that fast ball flinger, and to make it a perfect day, he lined into the bleachers for a homer, and the Leafs' final run in the next period.

Boll may be somewhat deficient in the art of completing double plays, but he surely swings a mean club.

Kelly and Onslow also found the range of the bleachers, and their mighty blows had much to do with the result of the opening squabble.

Considering that the wind was blowing almost a gale from the east the performance of the trio was somewhat remarkable. Gilhooley tried hard to do a Wingo, but fell short several times by a few feet.

Some Funny Stuff

There were many funny plays in the two games, but none more peculiar than the one which robbed O'Rourke of a hit. The shortstopper shot what looked like a two-bagger down the third base line, but the ball struck the bag and bounded up into Fritz Maisel's hands for a made to order assist.

The Leafs lost a run earlier in the fray, when Porter in attempting to field a sharp hit near second base, "booted" the ball to Boley, who threw to first ahead of the runner.

Sheedy got a two-base hit on a wind carried pop, which nobody got near. There were several hits of this kind during the day, which was not to be wondered at under the conditions.

Maisel and Gilhooley gave grand exhibitions of ground covering, and their judgment of wind wafted drives was almost uncanny.

Kelly also did not miss anything hit into his territory. He didn't have any hits in the second game, for the reason that Henderson took mighty good care after he had slammed a liner foul by inches only into the bleachers to keep the ball out of his reach. Kelly's homer, with one on in the fifth inning of the first game, gave the Leafs the lead, which they never relinquished.

One Large Inning

The second affair was a real tight-fought struggle until the Leafs got down to business in the fifth. Up to that time Henderson had held them to one charity and no hits. Boll doubled to open the chapter, and Capes walked. Sullivan slashed a single through Sheedy, scoring Boll and sending Capes to third. Glaser grounded out, but Gilhooley was purposely passed, filling the bases. O'Rourke singled, scoring two, and stole second. Kelly was also handed free transportation with malice aforethought, and Maisel drove to Boley, who threw Gilhooley out at the plate. Greenas pegged to Sheedy for a double play, but the later lost the ball and O'Rourke ran home, beating Sheedy's return toss by a fine slide. Boll hit a homer in the fifth and that ended the scoring.

Skeeters Here To-Day

Judge Landis was an interested spectator, and in company with the Honorable Joseph Thompson, President Lol Solman and President Tom Halligan of the M. and I. League occupied a box. Between the games Mr. Landis gave audience to Managers Howley and Dunn with his face up against the screen in most democratic fashion, and while standing there he was jammed and jostled about by the fans, who were eager to get a close-up of baseball's greatest magnate. The eminent visitor seemed to enjoy the experience.

The Jersey City Skeeters under the management of Jimmy Walsh will be here to-day, playing singles this afternoon and to-morrow and a double-header on Saturday. The Pests have improved since the season opened and the Leafs may find them even harder to squelch than the Birds.

THE DAILY KNOCK

Frank O'Rourke did not display the best judgment in the world when he hit the first ball that Earnshaw, the raw rookie pitcher, threw to him after the latter relieved Thomas in the first game. The newcomer was as wild as he could possibly be, passing Kelly, Onslow and Maisel in succession after O'Rourke had flied out and having three balls on Boll when he was summarily yanked in favor of Frank who finished the operation, forcing in a run. The short-stopper, however, atoned for his slip in more than one way during the day's proceedings. "Spin" Stanage was up in several pinches in the same game, but the veteran couldn't get hold of the ball with any degree of success. Boll's batting was better than his defensive play. He had three or four chances to figure in double killings, but was invariably late with his throws to first. He is used to the hot weather of the south and the cold winds of the Island apparently hamper his arm.

THE DAILY BOOST

Another hold over from last year in Norman Glaser delivered a fine pitching performance in the final game with the Birds. It is seldom that the slugging leaders are held scoreless, and the little right-hander is entitled to all kinds of credit for his brilliant effort. Sheedy, who doubled in the fourth with two out, was the only Baltimore player to get as far as second base. One of the Bird's three hits was a scratch, Greenae beating out a bounder back of the box that Capes handled perfectly, but was tardy in throwing. Glaser is apparently a much improved pitcher and should win many games for the Leafs this season. Sullivan caught a good game, his throwing being excellent, while he started the Leafs scoring with a neat single. The largest week-day crowd of the season saw the double victory, and now that the Leafs have proved themselves, the attendance should show a marked increase from now on.

YOU KNOW ME, AL—THE ADVENTURES OF JACK KEEFE —Words by RING LARDNER

Friend Al:

Well Al I ast Edna yesterday how she come to pick Rye for a place to live and she says so as her sister could come in contract with smart people so I says why dident we pick somewheres in New Jersey and maybe she could come in contract with Thos. M. Edison. As for Rye being so smart we stayed in N.Y. to a show last night and come out on the last train and I set in the smoker and I guest I was about the only man liveing in Rye that the conductor did not half to wake them up and tell them it was there station. From the looks of the rest of the boys about the only smart thing they ever done was name the town and they might as well of called it scotch.

LAKE ONTARIO WILL HAVE A SKIPPER

Preliminary Steps to Arrange Selection of Ontario Representative in Final Trials

By LOU E. MARSH

Unless someone heaves a bucket of ice water on the project in the next few days the indications are that Canada will have a representative in the sailing races at the Olympiad—and Lake Ontario stands an excellent chance of furnishing the skipper who will hoist the Maple Leaf burgee to the masthead of the one design sloops which will be used in this contest. The races will be held on the Seine River five miles from Paris, July 20 to 27, and they will be sailed in heavy under-canvassed 17-foot centreboard boats. One man comprises the crew.

At a meeting of the Canadian Olympic committee, held in Montreal ten days ago, the Olympic committee offered to send on a Canadian entry if the Yacht racing organizations and clubs of Canada would organize and nominate or select by trials a skipper for the contest, and finance the proposition. Delegates at that meeting said that only the maritime provinces, Quebec and Ontario were interested, and the delegates from those sections were asked to take the matter up with the governing bodies or clubs in their sections and prepare to send the best skipper from each section to final trials to be held at Lake St. Louis, near Montreal, June 16.

At the request of W. A. Hewitt, who was appointed by the Canadian Olympic committee to take charge of the matter in Ontario, a meeting of those interested in small boat sailing on Lake Ontario was summoned by William Judd of Hamilton, president, and Thomas Turrail of Toronto, secretary, of the Lake Sailing Skiff Association at the Toronto Canoe Club, last night. No attempt was made to secure representatives formally appointed by the various clubs. Those who have been actively interested in the small boat sailing game in Toronto and Hamilton were notified, and asked to gather and meet Mr. Hewitt and suggest ways and means of selecting a skipper from Lake Ontario, and financing his trip in case the Lake Ontario man was selected. They merely gathered to start the ball rolling. Mr. Judd was selected as temporary chairman.

The Olympic Committee's Idea

"I am not here to take charge of the selection of a skipper to represent Lake Ontario," said Mr. Hewitt, "I am merely here to place the matter from the point of view of the Canadian Olympic committee, before those who are interested in small boat sailing on Lake Ontario, and to ask them if they desire to enter into the proposed competition to select a Canadian representative. If those interested desire to select a Lake Ontario skipper for the final trials and will arrange to finance his trip in the event of his selection, I will ask you to name a committee to take charge and carry the idea to a conclusion."

Mr. Hewitt exhibited the plans of the one-design boat in which the contest will be sailed in France.

The meeting was unanimously in favor of steps being taken to select a skipper to represent Lake Ontario in the final trials and elected a sub-committee consisting of the following to take steps to bring the project formally before the Lake Yacht Racing Association and the Lake Sailing Skiff Association, the governing bodies for yacht and small boat sailing on Lake Ontario.

Lake Sailing Skiff Association—William Judd of the Royal Hamilton Yacht Club, president, and Thomas Turrall, of the National Yacht Club, Toronto, secretary.

Royal Canadian Yacht Club—Major Walter Windeyer.

Alexandra Yacht Club—George Cornell.

National Yacht Club—Commodore Lou E. Marsh.

Canadian Olympic committee—W. A. Hewitt.

Not a Dinghy Problem

While the majority of those present were men who were particularly interested in dinghy and skiff sailing, it was freely admitted that the problem was not peculiarly within the province of the L.S.S.A.

"This is not a dinghy proposition exactly," remarked Major Windeyer, who has had experience in racing everything from skimming dishes to deep draft yachts of real size and importance. "True enough the boat is something after the style of our fourteen and sixteen-foot dinghies, but it is of much heavier construction and the fact that one man is asked to handle and race a sloop-rigged boat equipped with light head canvas brings the question of the selection of a skipper qualified to race such a boat into the purview of the Lake Yacht Racing Association as well as the Lake Sailing Skiff Association. We cannot jump at this problem and say that the winner of a series of races conducted in our racing dinghies is the man to represent Lake Ontario in the finals, or Canada at the Olympic contest. We must select a man who is not only used to handling the centreboard type of boat but one who has had experience with sloop rigged boats and who is capable of sailing a boat single handed. That will take careful consideration. I know of no class of one design boats in Canada which approximates in design and rig this boat the French designers have produced for this race. To my mind we have right here in Toronto the only fleet of one designers anything close to it in rig and probable action capable of taking care of a series of races which would produce for Canada the best man for the task of winning that race. That is the class "C" one designers at the R.C.Y.C. True enough, they are deep draft boats, but they are the only class of boats I know of in Canada which can be raced with any degree of safety and by one man crews. Montreal hasn't anything suitable for one man. Dinghies have been proposed but experienced dinghy men know that 14-foot dinghies cannot be handled in any sort of a heavy wind by one man. These class "C" boats were all built off the same molds and are rigged exactly alike. The French boat is a slow, lumbering craft. This class C boat is not tricky. I know that they can be secured from their owners for the purposes of these trials."

Not a Fair Course

"To my mind the Lake St. Louis course is not a fair course for the finals. The water is full of tricky currents, and the hills make all winds more or less flukey. A stranger to the course is beaten there before he starts. Equally boated he cannot hope to defeat a good Lake St. Louis sailor on his own course. We have right here in Toronto Bay and Lake Ontario courses free from current and tricky wind slants. I think that we should take steps to acquaint the Canadian Olympic committee with our objections to the selection of Lake St. Louis for the final trials, and to suggest to them that our Class C boats, which are all of absolutely the one design and rig, would provide the best means of deciding the best man in Canada to handle a sloop-rigged boat single-handed."

The other sailing men present, all of whom are racing experts in various classes, agreed with Major Windeyer, and the committee will outline to the Canadian Olympic committee their ideas, and bring the question of the selection of a representative for Lake Ontario before the L.Y.R.A. and the L.S.S.A. The L.Y.R.A. meets Saturday in Hamilton, and Major Windeyer and William Judd will present the matter to them by letter and personally.

Those who attended last night's meeting at the Toronto Canoe Club were: Jas. A. Hyland, T.C.C.; F. J. Guay, P.C.C.; C. W. Burk, N.Y.C.; Art Kelly, R.C.Y.C.; Ed. Long, R.C.Y.C.; Walter Windeyer, Jr., R.C.Y.C.; Geo. Cornell, A.Y.C.; E. G. McPherson, R.C.Y.C.; A. R. Knight, T.C.C.; C. Graham-Browne, F.C.Y.C.; Major W. Windeyer, R.C.Y.C.; W. A. DOMINION BOWLERS' TOURNEY IN AUGUST

Dr. J. T. Phair Elected Chairman at Annual Meeting—East to Play West

The annual meeting of the dominion lawn bowling tournament was held at the Granite Club last evening. Delegates from nearly every lawn bowling club in the city were present.

The date of this year's tournament was fixe dto commence on Monday, Aug. 18, at 1 p.m.

The East versus West match is to be played on Haturday, Sept. 13, and all clubs are requested as far as possible to take an actual part in this benevolent contest.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: Chairman, Dr. J. T. Phair; vice-chairman, R. T. McLean; secretary-treasurer, Clayton R. Smith; secretary of East versus west, Charles E. Boyd; auditors, R. B. Rice and John Rennie; bowling committee for soldiers, Thos. Rennie and C. E. Boyd; delegates to D.L.B.A., E. P. Atkinson, J. A. H. Burt, John De Gruchy, Hugh Munro, D. S. L. MacDougall, Dr. J. T. Phair, H. G. Salisbury.

As some clubs do not send the names of their delegates to the secretary of the D.B.T., it was decided to have this brought to their attention in order that these delegates receive personal notice of the meeting in advance.

TORONTO BRITISH RUGBY CLUB

A practice has been arranged for next Saturday at the grand stand enclosure, Exhibition Park, 3 p.m., when it is hoped that a game of two full fifteens will be played. The officials of the club have been notified of the intention of many good performers being present, and they will be glad to welcome prospective members, either at the playing field on Saturday, or by correspondence with the secretary, P.O. Box 202, Toronto.

BOXING CARD FOR T.C.C. SMOKER

The final "smoker" of the season is billed for Saturday night at Toronto Canoe Club, and the "red wing" boys will throw the clubhouse open to all who care to attend. Marshall Eaton and Charlie Hoare, past masters at the art of providing entertainment, will be in charge of the event, and they have already arranged for six real boxing bouts, with the boys who featured the grand card staged by the Lions' Club at the Newsboys' show, Monday night.

They made a "strike" when they signed up Roy Dullage, the St. Helen's featherweight, and Gene Clay, the colored flash from the Apollo Club. This pair stood the Arena crowd on their ears last Monday night, and both boys fancy they were cheated by the judges. Saturday's battle should settle the question. The balance of the boxing card will show such good boys as Bobby Booth, who stopped Cates of St. Helen's, Phil River, who defeated Bradford, the good Detroit boy on the Lions' Club card; Cox of Granites; Carr of St. Helen's; Geo. Barber, the good Classic Club boy, and others.

N. H. L. MEETS HERE SATURDAY

The National Hookey League will meet in Toronto on Saturday.

North Bay has decided to have only a junior team in the N.O.H.A. next winter.

Buffalo men interested in construction of a new artificial ice rink in that city inspected the Toronto arena.

WANT DATE CHANGED

The Manitoba branch wants the A.A.U. of C. field and track championship at Winnipeg, August 23, instead of September 27, as arranged.

AFTER THE GAME

After strenuous exercise of any kind, there is nothing like O'Keefe's Imperial Brews for renewing vigor. Among the bowling fraternity of Toronto, O'Keefe's Ale, Lager, Stout and Dry Ginger Ale, are recognized as the "king pins" of all beverages.

"I Got It For Passing My Exams"

"GEE, George, I bet my dad will get me a C.C.M., too, I studied hard all year, and I passed my exams. well. I think I deserve a bike, don't you?"

"I hope you get it, Eddie. Then you can join the rest of us fellows in our runs out into the country and our picnics.

"I'm taking mine away on my vacation, too. There are lots of country roads to ride along and dandy woods to explore, some streams to fish in and other things to see, all within easy riding distance.

"Mother says it will be so handy to have a bike around. There's always the mail to go for and other errands to run."

"Well, George, I'm going to get my dad to go with me to the C.C.M. dealer's and see the new models—especially that dandy Curved Bar Sport Model and the other one a boy won't outgrow."

"Don't forget to tell him, Eddie, that C.C.M. Bicycles are away down in price. $15 to $20 less than the war prices. Also that they're made of English Seamless Tubing and equipped with the C.C.M. Triplex Hanger, Gibson Pedals and the Hercules Coaster Brake without extra charge.

"If he says he's short of cash, Eddie, tell him he only needs to pay a few dollars down, and the rest in small weekly or monthly payments."

"And I'll offer to help pay the balance, George. There are lots of jobs for a boy with a bicycle during the summer holidays, delivering small parcels, running messages, and doing other things. It will be good experience and heaps of fun, too."

"Well, 'so long,' Eddie. Go to it and get that C.C.M. Bicycle."
